

- 1) A dictionary is a helpful tool that can allow a reader to
 - (A) find information about new topics
 - (B) discover synonyms and antonyms for new words
 - (C) quickly find words that rhyme with a certain word
 - (D) learn the denotative and connotative meaning of a word

- 2) In which of the following sentences is the comma used correctly?
 - (A) On your way home please pick up a cheese sandwich for Gemma, a ham sandwich for Tom, a chicken wrap for Jason, and some samosas for Jane.
 - (B) On your way home, please pick up a cheese sandwich for Gemma, a ham sandwich for Tom, a chicken wrap for Jason, and some samosas for Jane.
 - (C) On your way home, please pick up a cheese sandwich, for Gemma, a ham sandwich, for Tom, a chicken wrap, for Jason, and some samosas for Jane.
 - (D) On your way home, please pick up a cheese sandwich for Gemma a ham sandwich for Tom a chicken wrap for Jason and some samosas for Jane.

- 3) What is a glossary?
 - (A) A type of citation
 - (B) An alphabetical list of terms and definitions
 - (C) A collection of organized, related information
 - (D) A small note from the author at the beginning of a book

- 4) Rabbits, groundhogs and moles all _____ under the earth. The sentence is completed by the word
 - (A) burrow
 - (B) borrow
 - (C) bureau
 - (D) burial

Question	Answer
1	D
2	B
3	B
4	A